The Parish church of Compton Dundon dates from 13th century, and William de Ludlow was appointed to the cure of this parish A.D. 1311-six centuries ago. If we assume that 8 deaths took place per annum as an average we arrive at a total of 4800 burials in the old churchyard, or if we assume 10 deaths per annum, at a total of 6000. As no record has been preserved, we can do no more than conjecture that there lie in the hallowed ground immediately surrounding the church the mortal remains of between four and six thousand persons. These are for the most part unknown and forgotten.

There are however some few whose names have been preserved on tombstones. As many of these have already perished, and as the inscriptions on others are partially obliterated, those that remain have been copied into this book. It is to be observed that the spelling has been exactly copied, and tho' the same word or name on a tombstone seems to be written differently in this book, it is only because it so occurs on the tombstone itself. The most ancient of these is (No 21) dated A.D. 1661 altho' there is a monumental slab (No 65) dated 1637. The earliest entry in the registers is that of Charity Callow who was buried on June 3rd 1696.

INTRODUCTION

In 1912 Revd. P.O. Moreton, Vicar of Compton Dundon between 1898 and 1926, compiled a short "History of the Parish and Church of Compton Dundon" written in a difficult handwriting into a small notebook, which was never published, but remained amongst miscellaneous parish papers, which c1990 was rediscovered in the benefice office at Somerton, and passed on to Peter Warren, churchwarden of Compton Dundon, who now (2001) as ex-churchwarden and compiler of the 'Church Guide' keeps in his home. In 1992 Peter Warren's son, Tony transcribed this, and reproduced the text in a booklet, which has been distributed locally. Amongst the contents compiled by Revd: Moreton and reproduced by Tony Warren, are copies of inscriptions on 59 churchyard tombstones (with 6 others noted as illegible), and 7 church interior memorials, and a rough sketch plan showing where these were located. Tony Warren's copy of the sketch plan is shown on the next page.

In 2001 Sir Mervyn Medlycott checked those inscriptions recorded by Revd: Moreton against the stones which still survive (33 survive completely, 4 survive partially and 22 have now disappeared), and also checked Tony Warren's transcript against the entries in Revd: Moreton's notebook, and made various corrections. He then added all other memorials at Compton Dundon to the present day. Obviously it is desirable to retain Revd: Moreton's numbering, as this ties in on the plan, but nos.63 to 69, which are for church interior memorials, have been transferred to a separate sequence together with some additional church interior memorials, namely nos.83 to 97 (with no.98 spare for additions), whilst nos.73 to 82 are assigned to some additional memorials in the old part of the churchyard, mostly erected since Revd: Moreton made his record, though one (no.80 for 1886) seems to have been accidentally omitted by him. These have been added to Tony Warren's Plan. No.99 is portions of a displaced headstone found on a stonepile in the north-west corner of the old churchyard.

Revd: Moreton only recorded memorials in the old part of the churchyard, and was not interested in including what were then very modern stones in an eastern extension to the churchyard, which was opened in about 1898. His copies are of exact wording, indicating the ends of lines (here given with an oblique '/') and included verses and biblical quotes. In these copies Sir Mervyn Medlycott has omitted all biblical quotes, and only records verses where these are particularly interesting, giving further personal information. Types of memorials (such as headstone, chest tomb, etc.) were not generally recorded by Revd: Moreton, and have been added for those still existing. Medlycott also checked any queries he could, and for all those which have vanished since 1912, against surviving burial registers in the Parish Registers (given as 'PR') 1696 -1995 and Bishops Transcripts (given as 'BT') for various years 1610 -1696, and has added information from these where they clarify or differ from the inscriptions. Unfortunately there are gaps in PR: burial registers 1701-4, 1715-28 and 1730-3, with no Bishops Transcripts surviving for any of those years. This is particularly unfortunate for the initials (only) and years given on nos. 3 and 41, so that the names cannot now be ascertained.

Three further sections have been added to this record. All the inscriptions from these are not in exact wording, but in the form of genealogical abstracts, giving all information provided in a concise form:

1. Modern memorials east of the church (within the old churchyard, roughly around no.60 on the plan), mostly comprising small flat cremation stones for 1980 -1999, which are given the numbers 100-121.
2. Memorials in an eastern extension to the old churchyard, sloping down the hill, opened in about 1898 with plots mostly filled by about 1943, which are given the numbers 122 -185.
3. Memorials in a north-eastern extension to the old churchyard, north of the last area, and at a lower level, consecrated in July 1942, and still receiving new interments, which are given the numbers 186 - 313. This area has purposely been recorded last, so that church officers can, if they wish, add on numbers for new memorials at the end.

An Index to Surnames has been compiled.

COMPTON DUNDON Monumental Inscriptions

CHURCHYARD

1. Coped Stone (on north slope). "In loving memory of/ William John CAPARN/ For 20 years Vicar of this Parish/ Died October 2nd. 1892, aged 82/ Also of Laura CUTHBERT/ sister in law of the above/died at Wolverhampton August 21st. 1893, aged 54".
2. Headstone (in two columns, flaking. Parts underlined have now flaked, but were recorded in 1912). left-hand column: "Here/ lyeth the body/ of Roger EDGROW/who departed this/ life the 4th. day/ of April, Anno Dom:/1706/ aged 54 years", right-hand column: "Here/ lyeth also the body/ of Mary, the wife of/ Roger Edgrow/ who departed this life/ the 9th. day of October/ Anno Dom: 1727/ aged 66 years".
3. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished). "J.G. 1721" (gap in PR: 1715-28 therefore name of person cannot be ascertained).
4. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished). "In/memory of/ William EDGAR/ who died January 17th. 1780/aged 79 years" (month of death might be an error, as PR: says he was buried on 10 March 1780).
5. Headstone. "In memory of/ Joshua WITCOMBE/ who died 16th. Janry: 1880/ aged 70 years/ Also of Sarah/ wife of the above/ who died 31st. August 1884/ aged 84 years/ This stone was designed/ executed and erected/ by George Witcombe/ their nephew".
6. Obelisk on two-stepped base (the obelisk is now lying on the ground beside the base), south panel: "In/ loving/ memory of/ Thos: ANDREWS/ who died/ January 4th./1885/ aged 77 years", east panel: "Also/ Dinah/ his/ beloved wife/ who died/ August 30th/1837/ aged 25 years", north panel: "Also/ Mary Ann/ his 2nd./ beloved wife/ who died/ March 10th/1852/ aged 44 years".
7. Headstone (splitting, and starting to flake. In two columns, left-hand column is blank) right-hand column: "In/ memory of Unity/ wife of Thomas TINNEY/ who departed this life Feby:/ ye 21st. 1789, aged 22 yrs/ Tho' far from hence I left my friends most dear/ It was God's pleasure I lies sleeping here/ But ere six months was pass'd all friendship fled/ And for the grave I changed the nuptial bed/ Death soon broke off the pleasure of our love/ And called me hence to gather joys above/ Blessed exchange for ever hence to come/ Angels will be my friends, the heavens my home" (these verses were presumably written by her husband, and seem to indicate that she died six months after her wedding, and that she came from a place some distance away "far from hence". It is also interesting to observe that, though a space was left on the stone for her husband, he was not buried here, and his name was never added to it).
8. Headstone (in two columns, starting to flake, figures underlined now flaked, but recorded in 1912). left-hand column: "Sacred/ to the memory/ of John ROWLAND/ and Grace his wife/ He died March 13th. 1786/ aged 57/ She died Dec: 9th. 1785/ aged 55/ Also two of their children/ both nam'd John/ died infants/ (6 lines of verses)", right-hand column: "Sacred/ to/ the memory of/ Willm: Rowland/ who died August 1 st/ 1825, aged 71 years/ Also of/ John, son of William/ and Mary Rowland/ who died Oct: 7th. 1834 / aged 42 years/ Also to the memory of Mary/ Loveless Rowland, wife/ of William Rowland, who died/ April 22nd. 1835, aged 75 years/ (6 lines of verses)" (Note: Revd: Moreton seems to have misread the year of death of the second John Rowland as '1834' as PR: says he was buried on 13 Oct 1831).
9. Cross. "In memory of/ Wm: BURROUGH/ who died Oct: 20, 1887/ aged 70 years".
10. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished). "In memory/ of/ Abraham EADES/ who was buried/ March the 2nd. 1766".
11. Small Headstone. "In/ affectionate remembrance of/ Caroline, daughter of/ John and Hannah WHITE/ who died 27th. January 1873/ aged 11 years/ Also of John White/ father of the above/ named Caroline White/who died 25th. August 1884/ aged 49 years".
12. Headstone. "Hear/ lieth ye body of/ James HURD, who died/ the 11 th. of April 1729/ aged 38 years/ Also Mary, their daugh/ter was buried here/ Dear wife forbear and weep no more/I am not lost but gone before".

13. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished. Obviously largely flaked in 1912, just odd smatterings of letters, with 4 lines of verses on the left, and 10 or 11 lines of verses on the right). "...../..... wife of.../..... 180- (aged?) 79". Verses include the words "A tender mother, a virtuous wife". Gave the mason's name "R. Clarke fecit" (impossible to identify in PR:).
14. Headstone. "Here/ lieth the body of John/ HURD, of Compton Dundon/ senr: who dyed December/ ye 26th. 1718, aged 76/ (4 lines of verses)".
15. Headstone (in two columns), left-hand column: "Here lyeth/ the body of/ Mary, the wife/ of Edward/ COOMBE, who/ departed this/ life June the 4th./ Anno Dom: 1713/ aged 54 years/ (3 lines of verses)", right-hand column: "Also the body/ of Jone, ye wife/ of Thomas/ Coombe, who/ died April ye 13th./1747, aged 60".
16. Coped Stone (flaked and covered in moss, recorded in 1912, on north slope): "Here lieth the body of Lucretia Mary/ daughter of William and Frances WILLY, who died/ May 30th. 1840, aged 3 years/ Also Frances Elizabeth, their daughter, who died/..... (one line illegible)". (PR: Lucretia Mary given as aged 2 and three-quarters. Frances Elizabeth Willy not found in PR: 1840-50).
17. Raised Ledger Stone (badly cracked and flaked). Illegible, even in 1912.
18. Headstone. "In/ memory of/ Mary, wife of William WYCH/ who died July 25th. 1857/ aged 74 years/ (9 lines of verses)/ Also/ William Wych, husband/ of the above/ who died July 9th. 1860/aged 73 years".
19. Headstone (stump still in ground, the part above has snapped off and is lying face down on the ground, too heavy to lift, recorded in 1912). "Sacred to the memory of/ Matilda Rebecca HAYWARD, beloved daughter of/ Samuel and Susan Hayward, who/ died June 28th. 1847, aged/ 8 years and six months" (Note: Revd: Moreton clearly made a mistake in the year of death as PR: states she was buried on 4 July 1846).
20. Headstone (completely flaked and shattered. Looks 'as old as the hills' but is actually only early Victorian, as revealed by inscription recorded in 1912. Note that no. 23, separately listed, is the footstone to this headstone). In two columns, left-hand column: "Sacred/ to the memory of/ Elizabeth NAPPER, wife of/ Robert Napper/ who died April 9th. 1848/ aged 62 years/ (4 lines of verses)/ Also of the aforesaid/ Robert Napper/ who died Augt: 22, 1859/ aged 73 years/ (4 lines of verses)" (Note: the month of death of Robert Napper is probably a mistake by the stonemason as PR: says he was buried on 27 July 1859). right-hand column: "To the memory of/ Mary Ann, dau: of Robert/ and Elizabeth Napper/ who died Dec: 16th. 1855/ aged 21 years" (Note: Revd: Moreton incorrectly recorded her year of death, as the footstone says she died in 1835. confirmed by PR: which says she was buried on 22 Dec 1835).
21. Small Headstone. "Here lyeth/ the body of/ Anne, the wife/ of John COOME/ who was buried/ the 2nd. day of/ July 1667".
22. Headstone with two Flatstones (only the stump of the headstone still exists, the remainder having disappeared, but was recorded in 1912) "In/ memory of/ John ROWLAND/who died July 25th. 1836/ aged 66 years/ Also in memory of/ Priscilla/ wife of the above/ John Rowland, who died/ February 9th. 1844/ aged 71 years/ (4 lines of verses)" The flatstones give only initials and years (still legible): "J.R./1836" and "P.R./1844".
23. Footstone (to no.20). "MAN./1835/ E.N./1848/ R.N./1859".
24. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished). "In memory/of Ann, the wife of John LIMBERY of this/ Parish, who died the 18th. of/ Decemr: 1754, aged/ (4 lines of verses)" (PR: as "Ann, wife of John LIMBRY" buried 18 Dec 1754).
25. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished). "Sacred/ to the memory of/ Hester/ wife of Edwd:/ ALLEN/ who died Jany: 29, 1838/ aged 34 years/ Should I ten thousand years enjoy my life/I could not praise enough so good a wife/ A friend most faithful: wife most dear/ A tender mother lieth here/ God grant his blessing to be given/ For us to meet again in heaven".
26. Chest Tomb (right-hand south, and east and west panels have flaked, and had done so even in 1912. Obviously they must have once borne inscriptions as on the left-hand south panel is a reference to "the aforesaid John and Susanna Limbry" whilst the left-hand north panel refers to "the before mentioned David Limbry" who are not given on this monument at all now. The left-hand south panel is badly flaking, those parts of the text underlined were recorded in 1912, but have since flaked), left-hand north panel: "And also Ann, wife of the/ before mentioned David LIMBRY/ died ye 5th. of Februy: 1671". right-hand north panel:

- "Here lyeth ye body/ of John Limbry, Jun:/ of this parish, who died ye 13th. of/ Decem: 1737, aged 26 years", left-hand south panel: "Also William and Mary, son and / daughter of John LIMBURY and / Mary his wife and grandchildren / of the aforesaid John and Susanna Limbry/who (ie.Mary) died ye 28th. Oct: 1720. aged 14/ William, died Feby: 7th. 1729. ae: 15".
27. Chest Tomb (the two north panels and the east panel are blank, whilst there is a carved molding at the west end), left-hand south panel: "In memory of/ John LIMBERY/ Gent: of this Parish/ who died 4th. Febr: 1758/ aged 76". right-hand south panel: "And of/ Mary, his wife/ who died 28th. August 1721/ aged 37".
 28. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished). "To the memory/ of/ Thomas MELMOUTH/ who changed/ mortality to life/ January 8th. 1830/ in the 46th. year of/ his age/ Worn out by affliction and disease/ Here's me laid down to take his ease/ A faithful friend and husband deare/ A tender father lieth here" (PR: as "Thomas MELMOTH" aged 46).
 29. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished). "Here lyeth/ the body of/ Mary, the/ daughter of/ Joane WOOTTON/ widdow, who was/ buried May/ the first/ Anno Domini/1668" (BT: survives for 1668, but this burial is not shown in it).
 30. Headstone (in two columns), left-hand column: "Here lyeth/ the body of/ Josiahs WOTON/ who departed/ this life the/ 25th. day of/ January/Anno Domi:/1690". right-hand column: "Here resteth ye/ body of Mary/ WOTTON, his/ sister, who de/parked this life/ the 14th. day of/ February in/ the yeare/ of our Lord/ 1690" (4 lines of verses below both columns, including words: "Deth in oure prime gave us the fall").
 31. Small Headstone. "Here resteth the/ body of Ann, the/ wife of John BROWNE/ who was buried the/18th. day of July 1674".
 32. Chest Tomb, no legible inscriptions, nor were there any in 1912.
 33. Monument (recorded in 1912, now vanished), left-hand column: "In/ memory of/ Timothy BARTLETT/ and Eliz: his wife/ who died Feb: 23rd./1761, aged 54/ He died July 27th./ 1767, aged 70" (PR: "Elizabeth Bartlett" buried 29 (sic) Feb 1761; "Timothy Bartlett" buried 30 July 1767). right-hand column: "In/ memory of John Bartlett/ who died Jany: 3rd. 1820/ aged 72 years". Beneath both columns: "Also Betty, their daughter, who died June 27/1766, aged 34/ Also Susannah, their daughter, and wife of/ John BARNARD, died May 10th. 1770, aged 35".
 34. Chest Tomb (the hamstone type panels are very worn, and some parts lie deep beneath the ground level. All portions I could not now read are underlined, as given in the 1912 copies), north panel: "Here lyeth the body of John MERRETT/ the son of John Merrett, who was/ buried June 6th. Anno Domi: 1640/ Here lyeth the body of Mary, the daughter/ of John Merret the 4 & of Sarah his wife / who died November 4. 1703 ". west panel: "Here lyeth the body of / John Merrett of Littleton / who was buried the ... day / of September, Anno Domi: 1666 / Here lyeth the body of..... / the son of John Merrett / the 4 who died " (BT: the first person was buried 20 Sept 1666). south panel: "Here lyeth the body of John Merrett / the Elder, who was buried the 26th. / day of January. Anno Domi: 1672 ". east panel: "Heare lyeth the body of/ John Merrett of Littleton / who died April 23rd. 1722 / aged 59".
 35. Chest Tomb (west panel is blank), south panel: "Here lieth the body of William/ PICKFORD, who died August 29th./1763, aged 91 years/ Here also lieth the body of Angel, the wife/ of the said William Pickford, who died/April 14th. 1757, aged 80 years/ Also two of their sons, both named William, who/ died in the first year of their age and Joan, their daughr:/ who died July 20th. 1734, aged 16 years", north panel (flaking, the parts underlined are now illegible, but given in 1912 copy): "Here lieth the body of Angel, the daughter/ of William and Angel Pickford, who departed/ this life 29th. September 1776, aged 66 years/ Also here lieth the body of Robert, the son of/ William and Angel Pickford, who departed this/ life 18th. North East Extension (at a lower level than the Old Churchyard and East Extension, this large area of ground was consecrated in July 1942 and is still receiving new interments. Genealogical abstracts of information on all memorials to the present day have been made. Recorded in rows (as indicated) from west to east, and in each row from south to north (actually the rows aren't exactly south-north, but more south-east to north-west!). Note: an interesting point is that, whereas in most churchyards, there was a fashion for memorials in the form of kerbs in the late 1940s and early 1950s, there are none here, indicating that strict 'churchyards rules' were kept, not allowing their use, no doubt to ease maintenance of grass between the rows. Mounds have also all been levelled, for the same reason)
